Kids Say The Godliest Things

My family and I attended the Mass of the Guardian Angels at St. Mary Magdalen in October. It was time for us to kneel and I noticed that Michael James was still standing. I tapped his shoulder and beckoned for him to kneel. He looked up at me, gave a nod, and said, "Cause every knee shall bow, right?" I gave a quick smile with confirmation, but the smile in my heart will last a lifetime."

— Michael James, 5 ½ years old

After picking up Abram from preschool, I like to ask all sorts of questions like: "What did you do? Did you paint? What friend did you play with?, etc." I know the teacher prays with the kids everyday, so I asked, "Did you pray?" Abram answered, "Yes." What did you pray about?" "We prayed about The Woman." I smiled with a little laugh and asked, "Was it like this? Hail Mary, Full of Grace?" With confidence in his voice he said, "Yep. I LOVE IT!"

— Abram Joel, 3 ½ years old, Both sent by: Erica , San Antonio, TX

Father Bob Hogan, BBD Associate Liaison/National Service Committee Member

Rosbel (Ros) Hernandez Director

From The Staff

We are happy that Ros Hernandez is starting to get around again after his knee operation. We have missed you Ros! As I am writing, we still have one more class for the Course on Charismatic Discipleship. In the upper room on Pentecost, 120 were in attendance and 120 people have attended the sessions in our upper room at the CCCR.

I am thankful for the good attendance. Those who attended are receiving a certificate showing that they went through 15 hours of course work with Fr. Bob Hogan (Theologian and educator). They have learned about the role of the Holy Spirit, Discipleship, Christian Leadership, Building Community, Team Work, Communications Skills, Charisms (receiving spiritual gifts for service/helping others receive them). Personal Prayer Life; Leading Group Prayer; Developing Spiritual Plans for personal life, family life and prayer groups.

Our Regional Conference will be March 7-8, 2008 (Friday night and Saturday) at St. Mary Magdalen Church (I-10 West Ave). We will have both English and Spanish Tracks. The theme is Sober Intoxication of the Spirit: Maturity in The Holy Spirit. The title is taken from a book by Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa who is the preacher for the Pope and the Vatican. He is very active in the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. He calls us to an ever deepening growth in the Holy Spirit in our lives.

I am excited that Sr. Nancy Keller will be coming to speak. She was the president of the International CCR office in Rome and chairperson of the National Service Committee. She is the author of the growth seminar

Service Committee Memo

The grace and blessings of the Lord, Jesus Christ be with you as we approach Thanksgiving, a time of gratitude for the many blessings God has so abundantly poured out on us. May He continue to touch the lives of our prayer community's members with an abundance of graces and the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

It has been a blessed and successful year at the Charismatic Center. We had various and numerous Charismatic events both in English and Spanish for our continued formation and spiritual growth.

The service committee met on Oct. 9, to plan the remainder of the year events and the 2008 calendar. As always, we look forward to planning events that will bring us to the love and heart of our Lord, Jesus Christ and to prepare us for the mission of the Charismatic Renewal.

We cordially invite everyone to attend the "Washing of the Hands" Mass on Dec. 1st at St. Henry's Catholic Church with celebrant, Bishop Flanagan. Following the Mass, you are invited to attend the annual Christmas fellowship at the Charismatic center.

We extend our love and gratitude to everyone who has volunteered their time and resources in support of the Charismatic Center throughout the year. We wish the prayer
