From The Staff:

We are looking forward to seeing you at our 12th Annual Regional Catholic Charismatic Renewal Conference this week at St. Mary Magdalen Church (Friday, March 6 from 6:00 pm. to 10:00 pm. and Saturday from 8:00 am. to 10:00 pm.

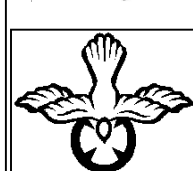

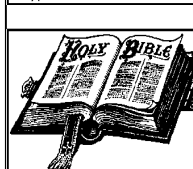

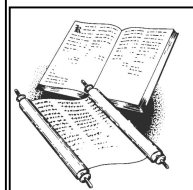

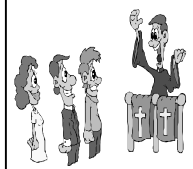

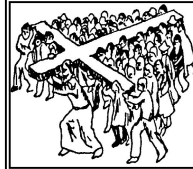

The Lord put on my heart (Fr. Bob) an image of St. Paul traveling to San Antonio. He went to the top of the Tower of the Americas and prayed that the Holy Spirit would sweep over our whole city so that people who do not know Jesus Christ may come to say like Paul, "It is not I who live, but Christ Jesus in me. I live my human life, but it is a life of faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me!" Paul continued to pray for the unity of all Christians in our city, urging us to "bear with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace...until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ" (see Eph 4). Paul poured out his heart to God that we would share in his zeal for proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ to everyone in our city, and form strong, dedicated communities of faith.

In my image Paul then went to the River Walk area. He prayed that this city may be more known for the "River of the Holy Spirit" flowing through it, and "Walking in the footsteps of Jesus," than a downtown River Walk. As I watched, the river became like a fountain that overflowed the banks and brought life and growth to all around it.

Paul passed the Seminary praying that our priests in training may become strong men of the Spirit like Timothy and Titus. He interceded for Archbishop Gomez and the leadership at the Pastoral Center for sound teaching, wise leadership, and attentiveness to the guidance of the Spirit.

He came to the Catholic Center for Charismatic Renewal and prayed for all the Charismatic Prayer Groups in our area. I heard him say, "Persevere, persevere, persevere! Intercede, intercede, intercede! Do not become isolated. Grow in the full maturity of the Spirit. Seek and use the charismatic gifts in all humility and service. Love your pastors. Continue to remind the Church to stir into a flame the gift of the Spirit that has been given to them. Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus, our Lord."

I then felt Paul look directly into my eyes, but it wasn't my eyes alone. He was looking into the eyes of everyone who is willing to hear this call. He said, "As the Risen Lord and the Holy Spirit gave me a mission, will you imitate me as I imitate Christ? Will you let the Holy Spirit take you further than you think you can go? Will you seek holiness with all your heart? Will you seek to reconcile and unify people? Will you let go of self-seeking, jealousies and hardness of heart? God has made available through the Church in this Jubilee Year of St. Paul the opportunity to share in the same graces that I (Paul) received while I walked on the earth. Say yes to all that God wants to do in you and through you." I then sensed him looking upon St. Mary Magdalen Church and saying, "I will be among you interceding at the conference. Be expectant. Go into the deeper waters of the Spirit. Let me help you this weekend to commit yourself fully to Jesus Christ, to the Church, and to the full work of the Holy Spirit. Receive the same zeal and fire that God put into my heart!"

FROM THE SERVICE COMMITTEE:

Peace Be With You!

Lent, Spring, and the Spiritual life have something in common; each one is in a tug of war. Spring is tugging at Winter to let go. St. Ignatius said, "The Spiritual Exercises of Lent are directed at our becoming more aware of our human un-freedoms and the free gift of God's love to help us let go of them." Lent is the prayerful time to prepare for Easter and living out the joy of being disciples of Jesus. The Spiritual Exercises of Lent help us to ask the big questions and then search for the answers. It is all about coming back to a life lead by the Holy Spirit and our encounter with Jesus. The 12th Annual Catholic Charismatic Conference on March 6th & 7th is a good time to answer some of these big questions, by walking in the foot steps of St. Paul and seek to be empowered by the Holy Spirit. We look forward to seeing you at this life changing event.

The Service Committee encourages you to drop by the book store at the conference and pick-up the latest books and materials to help in your spiritual journey.

My brothers and sisters, we are working with Fr. Bob on a comprehensive plan to create prayer group "zones" in the archdioceses. For example, 4 or 5 prayer groups would be in zone 1, and 4 or 5 groups would belong to zone 2. We are developing a plan to implement these zones.

The Evening of Renewal and Revival will resume its crusade throughout the archdioceses. In April, we will be at St. Leo's Parish. This year, the Evenings of Renewal and Revival will follow a theme of Embracing the Call of the Spirit.

Mark your calendar for the spring workshops on April 25th and May 2nd in the Upper Room. We know this will be a time of growth for all, so encourage your prayer group members to attend.

We are still looking for a few good men and women to fill some vacant positions at the CCCR. We need more volunteers to help around the Center. So, if you have some time to serve the Lord in this way, please call Norma at 210-226-7545 today.

As always, my brothers and sisters, please continue with your generosity of time, prayer and financial support to the CCCR.

May God Continue To Bless You,
Jerry Syring -

ST. PAUL AND MENTORING

As we enter into the second 40 years of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal we find ourselves in circumstances similar to other religious movements of the past. Every movement that lasts long enough must move beyond the founding generation and pass the torch to a succeeding generation. It is important that every new generation of leaders be rooted in the accumulated wisdom of its predecessors while still experiencing the freedom of following the ever dynamic Holy Spirit who "blows where he will". Mentoring the young is one of the ways that individuals in the founding generation can help this process. When we read the Pauline letters to Timothy and Titus we see a number of elements that are part of successful mentoring.

In the beginning of each letter Paul writes to his "son". Mentoring goes beyond simply passing on information or methods. It must be rooted in a relational base. It is easy for people to misunderstand or misapply what we say or teach, but if they are in relationship with who we are, what we say and teach has a context for understanding.

Paul also spent significant time in each of the letters making sure that Timothy and Titus were grounded in sound doctrine. Mentoring must go beyond its relational base and both pass on and encourage understanding based in truth. Paul recommended the scriptures and his own teaching as sources for remaining grounded in truth.

Paul also showed a concern for the moral life of those he was mentoring. He called them to adhere to their conscience and to live exemplary lives. Mentoring includes elements of spiritual direction and a special concern that the individual be a faithful disciple with an eye toward heaven not simply one who leads or teaches. Paul pointed back to early experiences of those mentored. Helping individuals build on the positives of the past and helping them come to terms with the past and move beyond the difficulties are important elements of mentoring.

Paul encouraged Timothy and Titus to remember and to act on their early experience of having of having received gifts with the laying on of hands. Stirring up the gifts and encouraging their use is another important aspect of mentoring.

Finally Paul encouraged those he mentored to be bold and not to let their youthfulness keep them from leading. Mentoring blesses and empowers those mentored and encourages them to do great things for God and the building of His kingdom.

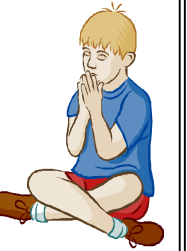

These are just a few of the aspects of mentoring alluded to in the Letters to Timothy and Titus. I encourage each of you to read these letters with an eye toward passing on what you have experienced

Kids Say The Godliest Things

I decided to ask my two older children a question. I asked them, "If you came face to face with God and he said, 'Son, what would you like to pray for today?', what would you say"?

These are their prayers:

Thank you that my cough is better. Thank you for our family and our friends. That they feel better if they're sick. I really want my family to feel better. Thank you Jesus for our system and our Lord, and thank you Jesus for everybody in the whole world. And if they're sick, cause I don't know.
Prayed by Abram Joel, 4 ½ yrs. old

Thank you for all the people in the world if they're sick, that they get better. And that everybody in the hospital gets better. Thank you for our family and friends, and for other people out there that we don't know. Thank you for our new baby, don't care if it's a boy or a girl. And I want to thank you for all of our sins that you put at the bottom of the cross, Amen. The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit.

Prayed by Michael James, 7yrs. Old

Both sent by: Erica – San Antonio, TX

Please send all stories to kidsforic@yahoo.com by the 10th of the month. God Bless!

Fanning YOUR Flame in '09

Michael and Erica Rodriguez, hosts of Fanning The Flame, wish to invite you to tune into their program which airs every 3rd Monday of the month on Channel 15 (CTSA) from 8pm to 9pm. They bring on guests who have a testimony to share with all of San Antonio, of who they were before they founded a relationship with Jesus, how they came to know Jesus, and where the Spirit is leading them now.

Guests for March 16th are a married couple named Jose and Charlene Charles. They have two boys, (Jose - 10 yrs. and Diego - 4yrs); are parishioners at St. Mark the Evangelist, and are very much involved in the Charismatic Renewal. You will want to be a witness as to how a fellow family lives and walks in the Spirit.
